A BOX MYSTERY.

The Physicians and People of New Hyland, Pa., Puzzled Over the Contents of a Box Received by Express—A Girl's Body that, Though Presumably Dead, Presents Some of the Indications of Life.

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Caroline Zettley, of New Hyland, a small village twelve miles from here, received a box by express from Mt. Vernon, O., on which, above the address, was written the word "Suicide." When the lid was removed, Mrs. Zettley was horrified to find that it contained the body of her daughter Helen. The woman summoned physicians and asked that a post-mortem examination be held. As the doctors were assisting in removing the body from the box they noticed that the evidences of death were not there. No rigidity was apparent, not a sign of decomposition. The girl was placed in bed a closer examination made. Her hands were found to be warm and a slight flush appeared on the cheeks. Restoratives were applied, but to no avail. These conditions were the same throughout the night and all of yesterday. The physicians are puzzled, and wonder how it is possible for a vestige of life to remain after the confinement in the box.

MEXICAN JUSTICE.

Colonel Sampson, United States Consul at Paso del Norte, Says the Administration of Mexican Justice is a Great Failure—He is Not Nearly So Black as He is Painted.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 22.—Colonel A. J. Sampson, United States Consul at Paso del Norte, is in Denver on business. Colonel Sampson was asked regarding the numerous complaints which have been sent out relative to the ill-treatment of Americans arrested in Paso del Norte, and said:

"Arrests have been wildly exaggerated. If an American displays the law in Mexico he is arrested just the same as a Mexican would be in the United States. Mexican laws differ from those of our country. If an American can not abide by their laws he should not remain there. The officers are supposed to uphold the law, and so far as I can see, they do so. Americans are given as speedy a trial as possible in fact. I think there is some discrimination in their favor. It is the Consul's duty at Paso del Norte to look out that other prisoners are not given preference over Americans; that trials are conducted fairly, and many of the cases which have been reported to American newspapers, I know from my own personal observation, are greatly exaggerated."

THE CONCORD READY.

The New Concord Ready for Her Official Trial—Her Builders Stand for Heavy Penalties for Failure to Complete Her on Time.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—N. E. Palmer & Co., of Chester, Pa., have notified the Navy Department that the Concord is now ready for a trial trip, and a board will be designated by Secretary Tracy to accompany her on her trial trip in a few days. The Concord is nearly a year and a half behind the time contracted for her completion and penalties of $300 a day are now running against her. The Hennington, a companion ship, is two months behind the Concord in being completed, with similar penalties also running against her. Palmer & Co. are the successors of John Roach & Co., and have been so crowded with private work that they have delayed the Government work despite the large penalties to which they were subjected. It is discretionary with Secretary Tracy to remit the penalties, or a part of them, as he sees fit.

A MOVING CURIOSITY.

The Capitol Architect at Washington in Receipt of a Scheme to Send the Great Building to the Right About.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Architect Clark of the Capitol is in receipt of a curiosity in the way of an engineering plan, looking to no less a feat than turning around of the great marble building were Congress sits. The method is somewhat complicated, but the substance of it is as follows: Some wonderful jacks will be placed at short intervals under the building after sufficient excavations have been made. Then the ground will be dug from around the foundations by degrees. Under the central portion, where the
